Mr. Hadden is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Farquhar Hadden of 7 East Seventy-sixth street. He was graduated from Harvard and is now studying at the Columbia law school. The wedding will take place probably in the spring.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Hester Chandler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop Chandler, to Edward M. Pickham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley L. Pickham of Boston. Miss Chandler is passing the winter with her parents in Washington, D. C., where the wedding will take place on January 30.

A wedding in Pittsburgh next month of interest to society here will be that of Miss Henrietta Thaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thaw, to Lawrence Slade of this city. It will be celebrated at Shadyside, the country home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, pastor of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, will be the officiating clergyman.

The final rehearsal for "Le Jour Ferie," the annual entertainment of the Junior League, which will be given in the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, 4 West Fifty-eighth street, and now everything is in readiness for the carnival, which promises to be one of the most successful ever given by the organization. Nearly all of the debutantes of the season and other young women of society who are accomplished dancers will take part in the programme, which includes a long list of dances. An equal number of the young dancing men of society will complete the cast.

Rehearsals have been going on for several weeks, under the direction of Miss Lila Stewart, who has drilled the amateurs for some beautiful diversions. Dancing is something to which almost all young people of society take naturally and the task of training the amateurs has not been very difficult, and judging from the rehearsals they will be ready to give a good account of themselves. The costumes of the various dances has received a great deal of attention and the scenes and lighting effects for each dance will be carried out with splendid results. There will be several surprise features not on the programme.

As the programme is a generous one the entertainment will start promptly at 9 o'clock each night and at the conclusion of the entertainment each evening there will be general dancing. Local orchestra will play for the entertainment and the general dancing. Nearly all of the boxes have been sold for the first performance and a large number of tickets have been disposed of. Those remaining are on sale with Mrs. Courtlandt Nicoll, 465 Park avenue. Tickets are $5 each and boxes are from $20 to $100.

Arrangements have been completed for the ball to be given under the auspices of the Fencers Club in the ballroom of the Astor to-morrow night for the benefit of the French sufferers from the war. An attraction somewhat novel for a ball will be introduced in the staging of several fencing bouts in which amateurs and professionals will take part. The plan has aroused no little interest among the members and friends of the Fencers Club who are enthusiasts with the foils.

Nearly all of the boxes have been subscribed for and it is expected that a large sum will be realized. There will be ample opportunity for dancing, for from 10:30 until 3 o'clock there will be two orchestras to provide the music. During the evening the orangerie room of the Astor will be open for refreshments.

The annual Charity Ball in aid of the New York Nursery and Child's Hospital, the oldest of its kind in New York society, will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria on the night of February 2 and it has been necessary for the managers of the ball to make an extra effort for its financial success as they are obliged to build a large addition to the hospital on account of constantly increasing demands for more room for women and children. The three large ball rooms of the Waldorf-Astoria will be reserved for dancing, and there will be an orchestra in each room.

Another institution of society, almost as old as the Charity Ball, the St. Valentine's Kettledrum, is asking for patronage on February 12 at Sherry's. The proceeds will be devoted to the Samaritan Home for the Aged, which is at 414 West Twenty-second street and which is in need of funds, like so many other philanthropic institutions. This kettledrum has been a fixture for more than forty years. It was held in the early days in the twenty-first Regiment Armory, which was at Broadway and Thirty-fifth street.

There will be a departure this year from the custom of holding it only in the afternoon, as it has been decided to have a night session for dancing. The early days in the customary attractions for children in the afternoon and for those who do not care for dancing at that time there will be a room set aside for bridge, under the direction of Miss Antoinette Martin.
